

Counsel

Legal assistance through COVID-19 Aetna Resources For Living<sup>SM</sup>

The spread of COVID-19 has left many people with more questions than answers. Though this pandemic may be changing the way we live, you have the ability to take control.

Commonly asked questions around COVID-19's impact:

Estate planning/healthcare documents:

- How can I protect my parents and loved ones?
- Would I benefit from a will or trust?
- What documents are needed if admitted to a hospital?
- What's the difference between power of attorney and a living will?
- If I'm recently married, do I need a new will/trust?

Tenant rights:

- What happens to me if I can't pay rent?
- Can I be evicted?

Visitation:

- Can I still see my child(ren) during mandated lockdowns?
- What are my rights, and have they changed?

Call for a free consultation with an attorney regarding your legal matter. If you decide to continue services, you'll get a 25 percent discount from the hourly or flat rate fee.

Sound legal advice can help improve your wellbeing and relieve stress. We're ready to help you navigate your legal needs during this uncertain time.

Aetna Resources For Living<sup>SM</sup> is the brand name used for products and services offered through the Aetna group of subsidiary companies (Aetna). The EAP is administered by Aetna Behavioral Health, LLC. and in California for Knox-Keene plans, Aetna Health of California, Inc. and Health and Human Resources Center, Inc.

All EAP calls are confidential, except as required by law. Legal services are provided and managed by CLC, an independent third party. Resources For Living does not oversee or control the services provided by or recommended by CLC and does not assume any liability for their services. For more information about Aetna plans, go to aetna.com.