Knox Keene Non-Discrimination policy

Resources for Living/Aetna complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not unlawfully discriminate, exclude or treat people differently based on their race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, marital status, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, or disability. We provide free aids/services to people with disabilities and to people who need language assistance. If you need a qualified interpreter, written information in other formats, translation, or other services, call Resources for Living or the number on your ID card. If you believe that Health and Human Resource Center, Inc. has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, marital status, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, or disability, you can file a grievance on our website at ResourcesforLiving.com, select on “California Residents, and follow the directions outlined under the link “Complaint/Grievance Form California Residents”. You can also file a grievance with the Civil Rights Coordinator here.
